Defense wins 3-1 in tag appeals

(From last week) Three appeals from justice of the Peace court convictions involving tag laws were thrown out and one upheld in a court-appeal case, when circuit judge L. E. Grant in Circuit Court last Monday.

James A. Woods and his father, Joseph S. Woods, through their attorney, Gerald Cox, contended they came to Hancock County to take jobs at Mississippi Test Facility but retained Alabama as their legal residence. The son said he was transferred to Texas in October and did not expect to return but was moved back in March.

Y. Woods claimed he was picked up for operating a vehicle without a driver's license 35 days after his return which he argued was less than the normal 60 days permitted to get a tag. Waiving a jury, he was found not guilty by the court.

The legal status of the auto was in Mississippi, he would be liable only for road and bridge privilege taxes and not for valorem taxes.

Clyde Hurlburt, assistant district attorney who prosecuted Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner, Jr., noted the attorney-general use the word "room" but the senior Woods had rented a house.

The father also waived jury trial and Judge Grant sustained the lower court fine of $5, finding him guilty of having an improper driver's license. He ruled not guilty on the improper license tag appeal in which Woods said he tried to buy a Mississippi tag by paying only the road and bridge tax but the sheriff refused to sell the tag without ad valorem taxes. In the case of no brake inspection sticker the judge ruled that since he had no Mississippi tag he would not be required to have his car inspected.

Indications are that because of the possible valorem effects the state will appeal the case. District Attorney Boyce Holloman was not in court at the time.

Commission seeks county finances

Roy Baxter, Jr., of Pearl River, trustee of the Mississippi-Louisiana Region Planning Commission voted with other members Tuesday to appoint Jack Different of Columbus, Ohio, to the position of Regional Planning Director, when such is required.

To be hired at an estimated salary of $12,000, Different is presently secretary and acting director of the development committee for Greater Columbus. He will be contacted by Milton B. Hill of Columbus, commission chairman, and advised when his new duties shall commence.

Hancock County's board of supervisors is to be pressed for action by commission members in the matter of planning commission finances. Assessed for $4,826, its share of the budget, Hancock County has to date not made such funds available to the commission.

Should the members' plea for funds meet the supervisors' approval, application will be made by the commission to the Housing and Home Finance Agency for regional planning funds. Such application would provide an additional $78,912 towards the organization's total estimated budget of $118,368 from all sources.

Child hit... (Cont. from Page 1-A.) cars involved in a collision which occurred at the intersection of Main Street and Beach Blvd. about 5:30 p.m. on Monday. Mrs. Odile Carter was operator of one of the automobiles; Miss Sandra Hinson, driver of the other, Paul Egloff, city patrolman was investigating officer.

Traffic on Beach Blvd., between Coleman and Nicholson Avenues, was re-routed Sunday afternoon while the wreckage of a 1965 Volkswagen, involved in a one vehicle accident, was removed.

Paula Grobe, of New Orleans, driver of the vehicle east bound, owned by Vincent Matranga also from New Orleans, apparently lost control of the car which overturned twice and landed on its top, on the seawall, before rolling back onto the pavement near Muller Drive.

Miss Grobe complained of severe head pains and was given emergency treatment at Hancock General.

Investigating were Marshal Fred Bourgeois, Deputy Marshal Gerald V. Price, Jr., and special policemen Kenny Fay and Donald Dorn.

Bourgeois and Price also reported minor damage to two cars involved in a collision that occurred during a heavy downpour of rain Saturday afternoon on Beach Blvd. at Vacation Lane. Drivers were Miss Janet Mason and Rev. C.L. Jackson, former Gulfside Assembly pastor.

Date is to be set for hearings in Mayor's Court of Garfield Ladner.

Gonin, Meyers take citizenship medals

Rev. Michael Kelly, assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, spoke on the Role of the Graduate in the Modern World at commencement exercises for St. Stanislaus College Wednesday morning. Diplomas were awarded by Msgr. James J. Hamon. The American Legion citizenship award went to John L. Gonin. The eighth grade winner was Michael Meyers. Charles William Plink, II, received the Bausch and Lomb science award and Barry Lynn Favre was recognized for 12 years of perfect attendance. The character cup in the boarding school went to John Charles Parrott while Francis Raymond Chiniche was among the day scholars. Edward Weidner from those in the middle study hall, and Stephen Tracclair in the small hall. Second place medals went to Rino Sognat, Leonard Henry Aucouin and John Espiau, Luis Carron was third. Conduct medals went to Frank Tugwell, big study hall and Larry Supple, little study hall.

CD rescue ...

ed up the Niven signal. "That answer to our call was the sweetest thing I'd ever heard," Niven reported Monday.

Informing Stiefel of their location and asking that such be conveyed to the Coast Guard, Niven also told the CD director that he had been in contact with two young persons from Gulfport whose 16-foot sailboat had broken a stay and was also stuck on Cat Island. Stiefel relayed both pieces of information to the Coast Guard in Gulfport who were engaged in a full scale search for the missing pair.

Responding to the call the Coast Guard men rescued the Gulfport young people but were unable to approach the Nivens due to shallow water.

John Christensen and Charles Steers, upon hearing this information, left for the scene in a seagoing outboard and, after establishing contact, assisted in successfully re-floating the Niven craft.

Others helping in the rescue were: Brewster Mollere, Gerald Price, Jr., Russell Elliott, the Bay St. Louis Police and Fire Departments and the staff of the Broadwater Beach Marina.

Court settlements ...

resulted from a coronary occlusion and did not arise out of his employment. The case was dismissed with prejudice and $1,750 or 25 per cent of the settlement figure ordered paid to the widow's attorneys, White and White of Gulfport.

On the criminal docket before the May term adjourned Saturday, Judge Grant dismissed a January, 1964, indictment for burglary and larceny against Edward O. Daniels on the defendant's motion for lack of prosecution. He had been charged with four others in a trailer theft case from the Leontown area. O.H. (Sonny) Mitchell, whose bond had been ordered forfeited May 17 when he failed to appear on a false pretense indictment, was presented by Sheriff Sylvan Ladner and the order was set aside. The case was continued to the September term and bond fixed at $1,500.

In Magnolia State Supply Co. vs. John A. Scarboro, M and M Construction Co. and United Dealers Corp., the case was non-suited as to M and M, a default judgment entered against United of $357.65 plus interest of $43.44, and against Scarboro for his interest in the property.

A jury with Frank Moran was foreman found $451.93 of which $392 was principal and $58.93 interest on a directed verdict in the case of Paul Anderson, George Oxendale et al, dba Anderson-Oxendale Co., vs. G.L. Keck and H. L. Keck, dba H. L. Keck Construction Co.

A judgment by agreement of $924.51, payable $50 monthly, was approved in U.S. Ceramic Tile Co. vs. Clayton Adam, dba Clay Adam Tile Co.

In three cases of Michael D. Haas, trustee for W.F. Holder, dba Commercial Finance Co., the court fixed the value of the property involved, the amount of the debt fixed and the sheriff directed to take possession of the goods for the plaintiff. In the case against Fabian and Hazel Favre, property was valued at $60.50 and the debt $600; vs. Erwin J. and Marie Storey value was $235 and debt $650; vs. Will Kelly, Elizabeth Kelly and Parthenia Walker, value was $89 and debt $720. Against Jim Jordan et al, the complainant had been unable to serve process on defendant Henrietta Jordan and the case against her was continued to the next term. Default judgment of $264 was returned against the man.

Motion for a new trial was sustained in George Carl Johnson vs. Mrs. Ruth A. Carlson. Johnson sought the action after a jury earlier this term found for the defense in a damage suit arising from an automobile accident.

Other action on the docket was: Mrs. A.G. Favre vs. Montl Carver Plumbing Co., defense allowed 60 days to answer; Aras J. Hoda vs. Shirley Mae Ladner, passed to the files.

SEMESTER AT MTF - Returning to Mississippi State University this summer following a semester of work at Mississippi Test Facility are Kelly Windham, left, and Stan Smith, center. Two co-op students are at static test site with Frank Hollon, a NASA engineer at facility. MSU students will return to MTF at end of summer term to continue their work assignments here. Windham is a junior from Grenada and Smith is a sophomore from Starkville. (MSFC-MTF Photo).

The two Beat 4 election cases, one involving the school board and the other the board of supervisors, were continued to the September term when they were called on Thursday.

Project Headstart ...

struct new buildings and assist with other manual work. The second summer project involves a free summer day camp, operating five days a week all through summer for the children of the area. Interested persons may contact Rev. Duggan for details.

Annunciation school will open its doors from 4-10 p.m. six nights a week, to instruct those persons whose original schooling is not up to now accepted normals.

groups and bodies have since recorded votes in favor of the action.

Election managers for both precincts are: North Bay box: E. P. Larroux, Paul Miller, Charles Gottschalk, and Alcine Saucier, peace and returning officer; South Bay box: H. A. Gilmore, Mrs. Hugh Miller, S. K. Kepner and Louis Banderet, peace and returning officer.

Rotary hears of port plan

Membership of Bay St. Louis Rotary Club voted without apparent dissent to support the salary increase proposed for the mayor and commissioners of Bay St. Louis. Vote on the proposal will be June 8.

Dr. A. K. Martinolich gave this week's luncheon talk on Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission's background, problems and possibilities. Terming it Hancock County's war on poverty, Martinolich, who is president of the commission, said he regretted his talk was not scheduled two or three weeks hence. By then he hopes the commission will have received from its engineers, Michael Baker, Jr. Inc., a master plan on which to base specific recommendations to the county board of supervisors.

Presently the commission is financed by a two mill county levy matched by state funds. Martinolich said the law, as best he understands it, permits the Port and Harbor Commission to do almost anything "except spend money".

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Applications for local licenses for marriage licenses have been issued during the last week by Circuit Clerk Lamar Ode as follows:

Trapani, J. and M. take bill

Trapani Knock-Knockers softball powdered Pearlington Barber Shop 23-5 Monday in the first game of a league play double header.

In the night-cap, Jerry and Mary's Lounge won a narrow victory over Travis' Lounge with a final score of 8-7.

Trapani's scored in every inning except the third and fourth and came up with a big nine runs in the seventh.

Pearlington's five runs came in the fifth when Wayne McCarty and Sonny Lick reached first on errors, J.E. and

Wayne Givens and Charles Bennett lined singles, and Sonny Holden, with two out and the bases loaded, hit a grand slam homer to deep right, but was called out at third when he

Gus Alms and Billy Murphy combined talents for the win allowing only seven hits while John Fury was charged with the loss.

Bob Hinks, their lead-off hitter finished with a 4 for 4 batting average and Dick Watts and Al Ladner each put in a 3 for 4 hitting spree.

Ladner was credited with the win and Claude Yarbrough of Southern the loss.

Top stars coach Bay team

Two Tulane University swimming stars, Larry Curran and David Bullock, conducted a seminar for members of Bay St. Louis swimming team on Sunday.

Instructing in racing starts, turns and other competition facets, the pair worked steadily throughout the day with each of the team's 69 members.

Curran, holding a 50-yard free-style time of 22.1 secs., and a 100 free-style time of 49.7 secs., swims for the University team on all permissible occasions. Additionally he is chief lifeguard at the New Orleans Country Club.

Bullock, holding a 100 yard butterfly time of 1 min. 01. secs., and an individual medley 200 yard time of 2 mins. 21

From the happy, hygienic halls of Hancock General come the first few lines of this week's effort. So ideal are present conditions for concentration, we'd really enjoy writing from a nice comfortable bed all of the time. . . but for the fact that it isn't free, but we're living it up while it lasts. Before proceeding, let us hasten to assure our readers that we didn't end up here as the result of gunplay with an irate mate. As current rumor has it anyone who even visits a medic for treatment of an ingrown toe nail is said to be in the process of having lead removed from some part of his or her anatomy. So wild have the tales become that we shudder when an automobile backfires for fear someone will swear they witnessed attempted murder. What we're leading up to is the fact that we've exhausted every source snoopwise. . . we can absolutely and completely vouch for the innocence of all whose names have been mentioned as possibilities and have come to the conclusion that the whole tempest in a teapot is the brain child of someone with a very sick sense of humor. Now we're ready to forget such nonsense and get on with the real news of the hour.

On the sick list
Most appropriately, we'll start with hospital items as they're most readily available. Santo Saucier was discharged Friday night, but we forgot to ask why he was here in the first place! Both Audrey (of Mrs. Eddie fame) Hoelzel and Forrest Nacaise had major surgery, also on Friday, but are by now on the mend. By press time Linda (Mrs. Fred, Jr.) Bourgeois will be at home once more after giving birth to her first daughter, Jacqueline Marie in Gulfport Memorial last Tuesday.
Honeymooners Ann and Chris Bell returned to Waveland on Thursday, looking tanned and happy and, we're forced to repeat our comment of last week, Coleman Avenue just won't be the same.
Back to our sick list. . . Oswald Villere didn't let surgery get him down. . . he was operated on last Tuesday, back home on Wednesday and wanted to check his crab traps Thursday, which all goes to prove. . . you can't keep a good man down.
Add Margie and Jay Lenfant's names to new car owners. . . their lovely burgundy hued automobile has the cleanest back seat in town. . . a leaky bleach bottle took care of that!

We shall return
As happy as we've been with our new people, all of a sudden we're realizing that some of our favorites were just here for a certain duration and it's with sincere sadness that we bid Lynn and Bob Pugh goodbye. They left last Friday for San Antonio, Tex., but for some reason have the feeling they will return a la McArthur!
A very happy birthday wish goes to 'the one armed bandit', Boo Noto who cut his 26th cake on Friday, May 28. Boo, and wife Jackie, will wonder how we knew which birthday, but one of our spies passed on the fact that Boo was elated when his insurance rates dropped at 25 last year. Incidentally, the one armed bit stems from the fact that his left arm, fractured several months ago, didn't heal properly and he faces weeks and weeks more in the cast.
Gerry (Mrs. Lucien) Gex is also due get well wishes. . . Gerry's had a miserable case of flu.
Wanda and Joe McWilliams are in the process of instantaneously remodeling their Hitching Post Lounge, which they took over three weeks ago.
Lloyd Burleson (TG and Y manager), and wife Hazel, are enjoying the second of their two weeks vacation, but we'll have to await their return for details of the trip, as they disclosed their destination to no one.
Fran and Urban Stork arrived here Friday from Bransville, Ind., to spend a week at their Beach Blvd. home. Dr. Stork says they'll be here permanently in just two years, his time of planned retirement.

Notebook jotting
Margie and Sidney Woods will have a lovely home when renovations to the Old Weston house, which they had moved from the buffer zone, are complete. As of now it's more of a headache than a pleasure.
Claire Kleinhans is also a patient in Hancock General. . . not only does he have pneumonia, but he's also troubled with ulcers.
Mrs. Walter Villere decided to 'visit' her husband in the first home completed in the Villere and (Lambert) Bordages new development, Bayou Caddy Waterfront lots, Friday the dwelling, smaller than either her Waveland Beach or New Orleans home easier to manage and so comfortable. She's moved in, apparently to stay.
J. Garcia an initial visit over a week ago, but as of this writing, hasn't landed in their vicinity.
Pennie (Mrs. David) Treutzel is also in line for get well wishes, having been hospitalized recently.
Kerbump
Evelyn (Mrs. Mike) Swanson was more than a little upset when we bumped into her last Tuesday, and with good cause. Her six year old daughter, hasn't landed in their vicinity.

Piano recital applauded by large OLG audience

Layne French, of Our Lady of the Gulf School, opened a piano recital, held Tuesday in the school's auditorium, with a Schubert adaptation, The Pet Shop.
Presented by pianoforte instructor Mrs. J.K. McKenna, the recital, attended by approximately 65 parents and friends, included works from Brahms, Beethoven, Haydn, Offenbach and Liszt.
Brahms' ever popular Lullaby, played by Barbara Morochino, drew much applause, as did two Schumann selections, Riding on a Mule and Swinging Along, played by Sharon McKenna and Kathy Bacon respectively.
Erin Dahl held his audience with a dual presentation from Aaron. These were, Indian War Dance and Pony Ride. He was accompanied in the latter, a duet, by his teacher.
Progressing through the more advanced students, Evie Bacon, Debbie Longo, Nel Ducomb, Karen Webel, and Mary LaGarde, the presentation's finale came through the fingers of Kathy Dahl and Kenneth Webel. Playing in two distinct styles, Miss Dahl thrilled all present with her renditions of Serenade, by the modern composer Gillock, and More, by Ortlani and Olivieri. Webel, displayed his truly fine form, in the recital's final piece, playing the Hungarian Rhapsodie from Liszt in a manner designed to meet the approval

Teen Times

Once again we sit in the fat, happy position of having really more news available than we can find time to write due, of course, to the round of graduation activities. However, as usual we must leave an enviable state for the school year. But, it is our luck as we begin again news is concerned. Our reporters scatter to the four winds, and we end up digging like mad, so, before our little friends begin to evaporate, once again, we'll plead for summer items, such as vacation plans, parties, etc., via phone, mail, or we'll even accept Pony Express—in emergencies.

Now to attempt to catch up on who won what awards in local elementary and high schools. All the proud pappas, mamas and relatives, turned out to view North Bay Elementary's largest class in history (115) received diplomas in Bay High gym last Thursday. As valedictorians and salutatorians have previously been named, we won't repeat these. Legion awards, however, remained a secret until the night they were handed out, so congratulations are in order for Jane Jacobs and Gary Walker the 1965 recipients. The ceremony went off without a hitch and we feel that the band, organized at the beginning of the school year, under direction of Prof. Marcel LaNasa gave a fine performance, even without the eighth graders who were in caps and gowns. Albie Thompson's aggregation played for the dance which followed at the Youth Center. Much needed rain forced a change in location for Bay High seniors and they too held exercises in the gym, to the accompaniment of Mr. Williams' senior band, looking quite fancy in (Cont. on Page 8-B.)

City Echoes

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hand, Jr., motored to Auburn, Ala., this week to bring home their daughter, Miss Dorothy Ellen Hand, who has completed her sophomore year at Auburn University.

Rev. and Mrs. Emory Green vacationed last week with relatives and friends in Texas and this week are attending the Southern Baptist Convention in Dallas as representatives of First Baptist Church. While Mr. Green was away the pulpit here was occupied by Rev. Thomas Douglas of Gulf Shores Assembly, director of assemblies and camps for Mississippi Baptists.

Miss Dickie Bartholomew of Minton, Ala., was weekend guest of Dr. and Mrs. John L. Griffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gottschalk and their daughters, Misses Sheila, Ann and Mary Gottschalk, leave today for Memphis, Tenn., to attend the wedding of their son, Karl David Gottschalk, and Miss Nori Lee Riddle which will take place Friday in Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Memphis. Mary is to be a bridesmaid in the wedding.

At Rose Hill this week for the Episcopal Churchwomen's Conference are Mrs. Dix Ashman, Mrs. Terence Feeney and daughter, Kimberly, Miss Hazel Marcy, Mrs. Robert Macklin and daughter, Cathy, and Mrs. Walter Rausch.

Representing Main Street Methodist Church at the Mississippi Methodist Conference in Jackson this week are Mrs. L. E. Steinmetz as conference delegate, Herbert Wise as alternate, Mrs. Wise and Rev. Lamar Martin, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Simmons and children, Gary and Beth, of Jackson, were guests of Mrs. Charles Dahlin in Waveland last weekend. Miss Joyce Stekman of New Orleans, Mrs. Simmons' sister, accompanied them.

Remember the stifling heat of summer, 1964? The temperature kept climbing, the humidity kept rising... you fanned all day long, you tossed and turned all through the night. Well, summer 1965 is just around the corner and it's likely to be just as hot and just as humid and just as miserable. This means you'll need an air conditioner but not any air conditioner. It takes big power to handle a summer like that. It takes that Friedrich power... the kind of cooling power you get from a 1965 Friedrich room air conditioner.

Congratulations to Beverly Fricke and Yvonne Schwartz, former Gulfview graduates who graduated from Bay High last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnston, and children Karl and Kay, are in Pensacola Fla., visiting her father, Mr. Beasley, who is ill.

Congratulations to the entire 1965 graduating class of Gulfview school, Patty Cuevas

Recipients were Wanda Jordan and Audie Stoufflet. The processional was played by Mrs. Ruth Ketchum.

Mrs. Lorraine Clay is in Albany Ga., as a guest of her sister Mrs. Juanita Shiyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cuevas jr. are proud parents of a new baby girl born 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

Melvin Lusich with 10 years of experience behind him has opened his own garage and auto repair shop on the "corner" of the Lakeshore Black Top Road.

Get well wishes to Mrs.
James Ingersoll who has been ill recently. Mrs. George O'Farrell is looking fine after her recent hospitalization. Others on the road to recovery are Mrs. Jules LaFrance and Gary Bourque.

City Echoes

Mrs. Dana, had somehow managed to start the family station wagon and pretty much wrecked one side of their Ramona St. home. At least the kid's precarious!

Big bouquet

For a change, instead of griping, we'll take this opportunity to add our voice to the chorus of predecessors who have raved about treatment at Hancock General. Anything we say will just be repeating what so many others have said before. The entire staff and all personnel go out of their way to be helpful and considerate. No stay in a hospital is pure pleasure, but in our opinion, everyone at Hancock General does their very best to make it just as enjoyable an occasion as is possible under the circumstances.

Very happy, though somewhat belated, birthday wishes go to Joey and Patricia Smith, Pat and Larry's little ones.

MISS AMERICA - Pat Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucy A. Green of Bay St. Louis, reigns over St. Joseph Academy's style show. Employing traditional Miss America theme in event Miss Green was selected queen by Mrs. Raymond Schindler, home economics teacher, for her outstanding ability as seamstress.

Joey cut his cake on Sunday, April 25, and Patricia on the following Wednesday, Apr. 28. Guests at both parties were their baby sister Alecia, Donnie and Karen Lusch; Linda, Bubbie, Roy and Debbie Schubert.

Winnie and Jack Holm had as weekend guests both of their very attractive and youthful mammas. Winnie's maternal parent, Katherine Stephens was here from Memphis, Tenn. and Jack's Mother, Belle Holm, came over from New Orleans. They dined at Haverly's on Friday and were feted by Marie and Marvin Mancil on Saturday night. Incidentally, the senior Mrs. Holm adopted one of the two snow white kittens Winnie and Jack's jet black cat produced several weeks ago, but there's one left if anyone is interested.

Help! Help!

Caroline Kiefer receives a mound of correspondence as Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager, but one letter so impressed her that she reported its contents to us. It was from a Mr. George Best who will arrive here with his wife and three children on June 8. He is to be here permanently with MTF and sent a little note headed HRLPI. He wishes to rent a large (3 bedroom, at least) new or older type home, suburban or out in country, O. K., and he's willing to repair, decorate and maintain property, if the price is right. Anyone interested may write him in care of General Delivery.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - A pair of striking crimson winged blackbirds, usually so wild, calmly residing in a small bird house; a lone lady crabber so intent upon her purpose appeared to be unaware that wave after breaking wave drenched her from head to foot and the gleeful sound of children's voices as they plunge recklessly into the first few days of freedom from school.

MISS SUSAN PUCHEU
Miss Pucheu
Mr. Bourn
are to wed

Mr. and Mrs. Ewan Pucheu of Bay St. Louis are announcing this week the engagement of their daughter, Susan, to Jewel Bourn, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bourn, also of this city.

The wedding is planned at 2 p.m. July 11 at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church. Miss Pucheu was graduated from Bay High School and is now employed at Lorraine's Florist. Her fiancé also finished at Bay High and is working at Winn-Dixie.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS

In accordance with the regulations of City Ordinance No. 134, the use of water from the waterworks system for the purpose of watering lawns is permitted only between the hours of 7 and 9 A.M. and 5 and 7 P.M. of each day.

Due to the ever increasing demand on our waterworks system we find it necessary to request your cooperation in complying with this ordinance.

Church has open house

(Held from last week)
Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church held open house to non-Catholics on Sunday in the first such gesture on the Gulf Coast.

Under the direction of Msgr. James J. Hannon, pastor, guides conducted visitors among the various sacred vessels, confessionals, altars, vestments and sacraments of the church. A musical, under the direction of Mrs. J.K. McKenna, was presented by the senior choir and included sections of sacred music, Jubilate Deo, the Lord's Prayer and Ave Maria.

James Collins, Max Gnanelloni, Ray Stieffel and Al Wein-farther greeted visitors and conducted the tours. The ladies of the Altar Society served refreshments to visitors in the Parish Hall.

Church votes for expansion

Waveland Methodist Church has voted to proceed with expansion of its plant at Central Avenue and Vacation Lane. Rev. Percy Byrnes, pastor, announced the decision of the board to the congregation last Sunday morning.

Property adjacent to the church was purchased two months ago and the church will now ask the conference for approval of the $10,000 project. The family of the late Rev. J. Cude Rousseau, in whose home the congregation met before the present building was erected about 10 years ago, is to give a stained glass window as a memorial to him.

Fews from the old Logtown Methodist Church, demolished to make way for the NASA installation, were moved to Waveland but the building is too narrow to use them. The steeple bell from Logtown also was brought over.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Egan of Pearlinton recently gave the church a sterling baptismal font in memory of their son, Buckley, who was killed in an auto accident last summer.

Suits and Sunday-go-to-meeting dresses, Lucien (Jimmy) Lader and Geraldine Kidd were all smiles when their names were announced as Legion Award winners. The senior dance was held at the National Guard Armory as each of the 91 graduates were allowed to invite a guest.

St. Joseph Academy's ceremonies were divided into three events. Awards night followed a supper on Thursday night and graduation was Saturday evening at mass. Marsh: Comprens was eighth grade Legion Award winner and Hope Sewell walked off with this and five other honors for the seniors. Martha Van Peak also returned home with the class banner, Christian Doctrine, Service and Scholarship awards. Nine received certificates as being in the top 10 percent in the nation in recent National Education Development Tests. They were Carolyn Redding, Illinois Marquez, Lisa Monti, Cathy Bienewen, Cheryl Stoesel, Lisbet Phillips, Lucille Giametta (our Beetle reporter), Cathy Dahl and Gaynell Cunningham. Seniors left for their annual trip to New York and Washington on Monday.

Headed for Boy's State in Jackson on May 29-June 5 will be Dick Mestayer, Jr. representing Bay High, Ozzie Blaise, St. Stanislaus and John Moore from North Central.

The largest percentage of Bay High graduates will attend college, most for academic courses, although some are planning to take accelerated business courses. We'll go into detail when more space is available, but will list those who have announced matrimonial plans. They include Cynthia Ash, Gail Gentili, Susan Puchow, Eileen Sanchez, Janet Sanchez, Jewel Bourn, Linda Dummam and Yvonne Schwartz who will attend P.R.J.C., as her fiancé is in the Navy and they will not be wed until next year.

We're happy to report that John Scalfie, Jr., received his diploma and valedictory award at St. Stanislaus on Wednesday despite the fact that he underwent an emergency appendectomy at Hancock General last Friday.

Sheila Woods is sporting a lovely watch, her graduation gift from boy friend, Carl Thomas.

Holly Reuhl didn't waste any time losing—she took over as a replacement at the Echo beginning on Tuesday before graduation. She'll work until time for her to leave for her job as a councillor at Camp Bratton-Green in Canton.

The Echo will be loaded with members of the younger set during vacation. Jimmy Giametta, a junior at Southern, will write sports and assist in the advertising department; Jimmy Austin and John Niehaus will work full time and as usual, there'll be a young lady from M.S.C.W. whom we hope will be as attractive as her predecessors, Carolyn Homes, now married, and Nell Thames, who will continue her journalistic career after graduation in June.

Jimmy Giametta is sporting a new car complete with red upholstery, bucket seats and stick shift.

Pointexter tops Christ School

James Pointexter, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Pointexter, of St. Louis, received the valedictory cap, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Rene de Montez, Jr., in memory of his parents, at Christ Episcopal Day School's eighth grade commencement Friday night.

The award to the second

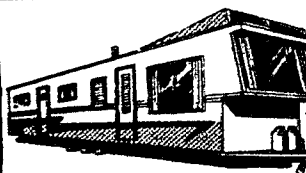

BACK FROM FAR EAST — Lester LaFrance, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. LaFrance of Citizen Street, has returned from tour of duty with Navy aboard USS Dixie sailing to Hong Kong, Philippine Islands and Japan. He is now stationed at San Diego, Calif. A graduate of Bay High School and he worked at Industrial Shemeling before entering service.

day for a two week vacation in Montgomery, Ala., where she will be the guest of former de Montezin Street neighbor, Susan Taylor.

Belated happy birthday greetings to Johnny Green, who was sweet 16 on Wednesday, May 26. She was feted at a very fancy dinner party given by her mother, Mrs. John Green, at the Ramonda Inn.

Several Bay High students won ribbons at the recent Industrial Arts Fair at Edgewater Plaza. Danny Betinger took first place on a finger ring of his design; Bruce Daggett, a first, on a pipe rack; Carl Thomas, second on a metal desk; Sammy Perniciaro, third on a metal and ceramic coffee table; David Neacise, second on a lamp, David Comprens, third on a ring, and Drew Fillingame, honorable mention on his ring. Larry Case also won an honorable mention of a floor lamp.

Sorry the ring Georgia Neacise is wearing is Gary Evans high school ring, not a diamond. Who on earth wandered all over the neighborhood one morning—and at the unheard of hour of 6:00 a.m., hunting for Mike... and who is this Mike? Congratulations to Annette Vaughn who mastered the drivers test and now has her license.

standing student given by the McCulloch family in memory of Dan McCulloch and his twin, Donald Graham, went to Laura Ryanne McCulloch of Long Beach.

The two awards were presented by Rev. Charles W. Johnston, pastor, who also distributed diplomas to the 17 pupils.

Christy Ann Sears and Robert Allen Boyd received the American Legion citizenship awards from John D. Rutherford, Jr.

Speaker for the occasion was Dr. George Byrne of Pass Christian, surgeon and member of the school's board of trustees.

Forty-four scholarship awards were made by Mrs. G. T. Stanton, Jr., to pupils in the first through eighth grades.

Rev. Durrie B. Hardin, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, Pass Christian, gave the invocation. Clay McClelland, vice president of the graduating class, welcomed guests and the school chorus, accompanied by Mrs. L.R. Seebing, sang.
